

Laughter Yoga Open Day 2017 is hosted by: Maggie Thompson (AKA 'Merrie Maggie'), Certified Laughter Yoga Teacher and Laughter Yoga Ambassador appointed by Dr Madan Kataria
Speaker information	Photo
Prof. Anna Whittaker Professor in Behavioral Medicine, School of Sport, Exercise & Rehabilitation Sciences Subject of talk: The effect of stress on the body, e.g. Immune system and stress hormones: How stress and social connections relate to our physical health particularly through the immune system and the effects of stress hormones, and how this differs across the life span.
Lotte Mikkelsen Laughter Yoga Ambassador appointed by Dr Madan Kataria, Laughter Yoga Master Trainer Subject of Talk: The impact of laughter on neurological disorders.
Robin Graham Laughter Yoga Ambassador appointed by Dr. Madan Kataria, and Laughter Yoga Teacher, Laughter Consultant, Speaker and Trainer Subject of Talk: Groups Robin has worked with, their feedback and the idea of taking laughter to groups where people are living with challenges. In particular Robin will speak about Laughter On Prescription for women with medium depression, and laughter as part of a pain management regime.
Wes Floyd BA (Hons) Business. DipMgmt, Laughter Yoga Teacher, Founder Laughter Time. Subject of Talk: Grenfell Tower, the Laughter Foundation, connections and Laughter Festival 2018
Jules Mitchell Jules Mitchell is the director of a Community Interest Company; The Big Happiness Experiment and a qualified Laughter Yoga Teacher. Subject of Talk: Teaching Happiness: The M.A.D. Professors mission to make schools happy and children connected to their own inner wisdom.
Eva Provedel Laughter Yoga Teacher and Ambassador appointed by Dr Madan Kataria, Joy Coach, Personal Impact Trainer, Facilitator, Speaker, Tango & Blues dancer. Subject of Talk: Taking Laughter into the Streets and into your Life. How to bring more laughter into your daily life and share it any place you want.	